Martin's Erskine Plaza store in South Bend features updated selections after extensive remodeling

SOUTH BEND, IN/November 6, 2019/Martin's Super Markets – The Martin's Super Market located at 926 Erskine Plaza in South Bend will invite customers and dignitaries to a re-opening ceremony at Noon on Sunday, November 10.

New store features include Martin's Signature Smokehouse BBQ and Crushed Tomato artisan pizza programs. It will also be the first store to feature a Martin's Grill in the service meat department, offering ready-to-grill options including pub burgers, sausage, chicken, Lobster Rolls, sandwiches and more. Martin's Signature Bagels and store-made variety cream cheese will be one of many upgrades to the Bake Shoppe area.

The store will also feature a new produce offering: The Fresh Divide. Customers can choose fresh produce selections, while produce staffers slice or dice and portion each customers' selections and combinations while they wait.

A larger and expanded Starbucks Coffee Kiosk and new Floral Shoppe are additional highlights.

The store will continue to offer Martin's Super Markets' extensive selections in all departments throughout the store. Groceries To Go pick up and delivery will continue to be offered, as well as all Advantage Card holder benefits, savings and loyalty programs.

New neighbor Greenbush Brewing Co., based in Sawyer, Michigan, will occupy the former side-door deli lower level café seating area with a brand-new pub that includes 14 taps and a one-barrel system for experimental and regular brews. The famous Greenbush mug club will be accepted at this new location as well. Greenbush will offer a menu that includes BBQ, pizza and grill options. Greenbush is expected to open mid-month; after the store grand re-opening.

The Martin's store manager is Chris Belakovich. Tim Stauffer is assistant store manager.

Regular hours will continue daily from 6:00 a.m. to midnight.

The store has operated at its current location since 1979.
